

Meet the Editor

How to submit a successful manuscript

*Sadegh Nashat, Editor-in-Chief, Rorschachiana:
International Journal of the Rorschach and Projective
Methods*

Organised by Hogrefe Publishing in association with Connecting Minds Network

Europe, Tuesday 4 December 2012

Japan and Australia, Monday 14 January 2013

The Americas, Friday 25 January 2013

Sadegh Nashat, Editor-in-Chief of Rorschachiana, and Hogrefe Publishing are organising a series of online seminars (webinars) aimed at practitioners and researchers in the field of projective psychology and personality assessment.

This webinar will introduce some of the key elements of a successful manuscript. The Editor will also talk about the peer-review process. A “Question & Answer” session will allow potential authors to talk about their work and inquire about the submission process.

This webinar is for anyone interested in publishing his or her work in an international journal.

The presentation will include:

- Overview of the submission process
- The manuscript’s structure and style
- The different types of manuscript
- Using or not using headings?
- The literature review
- Presenting and discussing results
- References: common mistakes
- The peer-review process

To register, visit:

www.connectingmindsnetwork.com/portfolio/rorschachiana/

Dates and times:

Europe, Tuesday 4 December 2012

- London (GMT) 4.30pm
- Paris (GMT +1) 5.30pm
- Tel Aviv (GMT +2) 6.30pm
- Istanbul (GMT +2) 6.30pm

Japan and Australia, Monday 14 January 2013

- London (GMT) 10.00am
- Tokyo (GMT +9) 7.00pm
- Sydney (GMT +11) 9.00pm

The Americas, Friday 25 January 2013

- London (GMT) 9.00pm
- Brasilia (GMT -2) 7.00pm
- New York (GMT -5) 4.00pm
- San Francisco (GMT -8) 1.00pm

Further information:

Connecting Minds Network
cmn@connectingmindsnetwork.com
+44 (0)20 3239 0086
www.connectingmindsnetwork.com