

Ongoing at the ISR!
Grants for the XIVth Summer Seminars in Prague
31st July - 2nd August 2020

The ISR Grant Committee

The ISR is pleased to announce that a number of grants for travel to the XIVth Summer Seminars in Prague will be made available. The size of the grants will be determined by travel expenses as well as the number of applications approved. The maximum grant will be CHF 500. Priorities for awarding the grant are as follows:

1. Applicants from developing countries
2. Students and recent graduates who are attending the Summer Seminars
3. Applicants who have not previously received a grant from the ISR

Interested individuals should submit the application form between January 15th, 2020 and April 15th, 2020 to the Grant Committee c/o Odile Husain, Ph.D. at the following email address: odilehz@hotmail.com
Grants will be announced by May 30th, 2020.

The following documents are requested along with the filled in application form:

1. For students, proof of enrollment in a university
2. For recent graduates, copy of graduate diploma or certificate
3. Brief Curriculum Vitae of the applicant
4. Reference letter from an ISR member of a national society or an individual member of the ISR or a licensed psychologist, if the applicant comes from a country which has no national society, as well as his or her email
5. Evidence of airfare or of other means of transport

Please note the following:

1. Grants will only be funded after full payment has been made for the Summer Seminars registration and has been confirmed by the Treasurer of ISR. The grant application form and the registration form for the Summer Seminars are available on the website of ISR: rorschach.com
2. No incomplete submission will be examined.
3. The grants will be announced by May 30th, 2020. There will be no appeal process and the Grant Committee will not provide justification for its decisions.
4. Recipients of a travel grant from the ISR who cancel their Summer Seminars registration during the period when a refund is still possible will only obtain their refund after they reimburse the full amount of the travel grant to the ISR.

Payment by the ISR: Applicants will obtain payment through a wire transfer in CHF to their bank account. They may choose to receive it:

1. Before the Summer Seminars
2. At or after the Summer Seminars

Kindly inform colleagues and students of this opportunity at the earliest!
